Nurse suspended over death crash

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A NURSE has been suspended from working for a year after being jailed for causing death by dangerous driving.

Robert Sigauke, 33, was suspended by the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) last Friday. He was released from prison in July, having served half of a four-year sentence.

He had not passed his test and was not insured when he was involved in an accident killing 62-year-old builder David Turner, from Fulbourn, in a head-on collision as he drove to work at Fulbourn Hospital in October 2005.

Sigauke, who is married with two young children, had a full driving licence in Zimbabwe, where he left in 1995, but had failed to exchange it for a British licence.

He was jailed in May 2006, after being convicted of causing death by dangerous driving.

Linda Read, chairman of the NMC's panel, said Sigauke, of Kirkling Place, Haverhill, should not be struck off and the decision to suspend him would be reviewed in 12 months.

She said: "The panel have heard how Mr Sigauke was involved in a dreadful accident.

WHEN it comes to recycling waste, pupils at a local primary school have proved themselves to be pure gold.

Suffolk County Council sent a representative along to present a gold status commemorative plaque to New Cangle County Primary School, in Chapple Drive, Haverhill, in recognition of the fact that 70 per cent of all waste in the school is being recycled.

This percentage far exceeded the 35 per cent target required to achieve a bronze award.

The county council had previously sent its waste education officer along to talk to the children at the school and ask them to pledge to recycle.

Cangle project leader Sue Jesson said: "They also provided free compost bins, which have been put to good use."

Witnesses are sought after cars scratched

FIVE vehicles were scratched while parked in Clarendon Road, Haverhill, over a six-day period.

The damage was caused between Tuesday May 12 and Monday May 18 and police want to hear from anyone who may have seen anyone acting suspiciously around vehicles. Calls in relation to these incidents should be made to Pc Michael Potter at the Haverhill Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Both light-fingered and light-headed

THIEVES broke into a storage area at Camps Road, Haverhill, by cutting a padlock and stole 15 cylinders of Entonox.

The burglary happened between 8.30pm on Sunday, May 17 and 2.40am on Monday, May 18. Calls in relation to this incident should be made to PC Guy Ainsworth at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Gardening gear is stolen from garage

THIEVES broke into a garage at Elmdon Place, Haverhill by forcing a lock and stole a leaf blower, a strimmer, a lawnmower and three cans of red diesel.

The theft happened between 4.15pm last Wednesday and 7.30am on Thursday.

Call PC Jane Mangnall at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Minister puts his best foot forward in round-town event

A MINISTER was joined by other walkers as he set off on a marathon hike around local countryside to raise money for two charities.

Pastor David Wiffen, of the Downs Baptist Church, organised the Countryside Circular Footpath round Haverhill on Saturday.

Those taking part could walk, jog or run the full 25 miles, or take a route of 5, 9 or 18 miles to suit their fitness, age and enthusiasm. All routes started and finished at East Town Park. Certificates of Achievement with distance and time were awarded, with the individual entrance fees of £10 and sponsorship monies divided equally between Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy Research and the East Anglian Children's Hospices.

Legal challenge is mounted by councils

A LEGAL challenge is being mounted by three Suffolk councils against a Boundary Committee proposals which could see them all wiped out.

Legal proceedings have begun against the Boundary Committee for England (BCE), with the High Court asked to judicially review its actions in respect of the local government review for Suffolk.

Papers will be served by Forest Heath District Council, Suffolk Coastal District Council and St Edmundsbury Borough Council this week.

Despite the findings of a recent survey which indicated that 76 per cent of Suffolk residents want the opportunity to be consulted on a 'three-unitary' proposal for the county, the Boundary Committee has dismissed this option and the views of five Suffolk councils who supported it.

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Sixty per cent of those asked said they would actually prefer the three-unitary option and, conversely, only 25 per cent of those surveyed expressed a preference for the 'One Suffolk' model, with 14 per cent favouring the creation of two unitary councils.

Chief Executive of St Edmundsbury Borough Council, Geoff Rivers; Chief Executive of Forest Heath District Council, David Burnip and Leader of Suffolk Coastal District Council, Cllr Ray Herring, said: "Residents across the county have made it clear that they want to be consulted on all options for the reorganisation of local councils in Suffolk, including our proposals for three unitaries covering Ipswich, West Suffolk and East Suffolk.

"The recent ORB survey could not have presented a clearer and more unequivocal statement on behalf of the people of Suffolk that the three unitary option must be considered and other surveys with, amongst others, town and parish councils merely highlight the BCE's intransigence and ignorance of the popular view.

"Our proposed structure would be the best of all worlds. As affordable as any other option, and yet providing stronger, more accountable leadership, with services tailored to local needs. This will strengthen rather than weaken local democracy."

The grounds for a legal challenge will be made on the basis of three clear issues: that the BCE has not acted fairly, that it has not consulted adequately and that its approach is inconsistent with the view of the Court of Appeal, who heard a judicial challenge from Norfolk Councils in March.

The combined statement continued: "So far, the BCE has failed to listen to local councils, local communities and even Government ministers.

"It has turned down meetings and seems determined to ignore the views of anyone whose views do not conform to their vision for the county.

"That is a shabby way to treat the people of Suffolk."

New rail travel hold-up microblogs are oh-so-tweet

First Capital Connect (FCC) launched the new service yesterday.

When rail travellers follow FCC on Twitter, they will be asked for information about their regular commute – the stations they travel between and the times of day when their journeys typically take place.

The system will then continually monitor the status of the rail network, alerting customers only when problems occur that will affect their journeys.

FCC's Katey Burton said: "When Twitter's popularity started to grow, we decided it could help us provide customers with timely information." For full details, visit www.twitter.com/FirstCC

Residents gets sneak peek at health centre

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

RESIDENTS went along to an open evening in Haverhill to see what will be on offer when a new temporary health facility opens in the town next month.

Organisers said more than 30 people were "pleasantly surprised" by what services they will be able to access when the new health facility, known as the Crown Health Centre, officially opens its doors next month.

The Practice plc will operate the new GP-led health centre, which will be housed in a temporary 'pod' for up to three years in the carpark behind the former Corn Exchange building off Withersfield Road.

A permanent home for the centre, which will be open from 8am to 8pm, seven days a week, is currently being sought and is set to be completed sometime during 2012.

Neighbours were invited to see for themselves the modern high-specification health centre that will be offering new health services, such as treating minor injuries – stopping unnecessary trips to A&E – and specialised clinics to help people stop smoking.

They will also be able to receive advice on sexual health, alcohol and substance misuse and weight management.

The centre will also offer appointments alongside a walk-in service.

Melanie Craig, deputy director of performance at NHS Suffolk, said: "We're really looking forward to the GP surgery and walk-in centre opening, and it becoming a valued healthcare facility for the people of Haverhill and the surrounding area."

"We see the success of this initial event as a good sign that we're listening to residents' concerns, and are working with the local community to ensure minimal disruption while the centre was being established."

"We'd also like to extend our thanks to the residents for their patience in helping us to get to this stage, and the Haverhill locality group for their ideas and support."

The official opening of the centre will take place on Wednesday, June 3 at 11am.

It's a blockbuster, baby!

SOME tiny cinema-goers are proving that you are never too young to start enjoying the latest blockbusters.

Lily Kimber, aged just two-and-a-half weeks, 19-week-old Rosie Cook and three-week-old Phoebe Flatt slept through most of the thriller Angels and Demons at the latest Cinebabies screening at the Haverhill Cineworld cinema, in Ehringshausen Way.

But their parents were able to enjoy the film uninterrupted as staff at the cinema looked after their babies if they needed attention, with special soft lighting and reduced sound for the screening.

Haverhill is one of only two Cineworld cinema's in the UK piloting the Cinebabies scheme, which was the brainchild of its manager, Paul Willden, and could be rolled out across the country if the three-month trial is a success.

Mums, dads or grandparents, can take their little ones, aged up to 18 months, along to the cinema at noon on Mondays, except Bank Holidays, and choose from three films.

Staff members are on hand to help care for the babies and take them out to be fed or changed if necessary, so that parents do not miss the film.

Nicky Blande took her baby Lily along to this week's session and was impressed with the help she received. She said: "The staff were really good. They took her out and changed her twice and the rest of the time she was quite happy. I would not have even thought about going to the cinema with her, but I will definitely be going again."

Sarah Lomas has been going to the sessions since they started and was surprised to sometimes be the only person there.

She said: "We did not know about it until we saw it in the paper, but we have been every week. I think it is brilliant. They are really good with Rosie and she loves it. I cannot understand why more people don't go. I have been telling everyone I know how good it is."

Helen and Steve Flatt travelled from their home in Newmarket to take Phoebe along to the session. She said: "I was just moaning that I would never be able to go to the cinema again as I am breast feeding and it is very difficult to leave her with anybody while she is so little."

"It was very good, the staff were friendly and very welcoming and I noticed they took the other babies out and changed them so that their parents did not miss the film."

"It was really nice that we could go out as a family."

Fly-over to mark special base date

ARMY cadets will lead a service to commemorate the brave servicemen at RAF Wrating Common.

Cadets from the 1451 Haverhill Air Training Corps will lead a parade at the site of the former Suffolk air base on Sunday at 1.30pm, to commemorate the 20th anniversary of the unveiling of the memorial stone.

A Lancaster from the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight is due to make a low-level flight over the memorial at Weston Woods Farm, Weston Colville.

The service will remember the 260 ground staff and air crew from the air base who died between 1943 and 1945.

Axe set to fall on 'dangerous' trees

A TREE preservation order to prevent the removal of two mature sycamore trees within a Conservation Area has been discontinued.

Members of St Edmundsbury Borough Council's development control committee agreed that the order, relating to work on trees at The Old Vicarage in Callis Street, Clare, should not be confirmed.

An arboricultural report said that work, including the removal of the sycamore trees and pollarding of others, was necessary.

The trees were potentially dangerous to nearby buildings and only limited views of them were available to the public.

"He did not have 'L' plates displayed on his car and he was not accompanied by a qualified driver, which he should have been because he was in possession of a provisional licence, not a full UK licence."

"We have also heard how he cancelled the insurance on his car a few months before the accident occurred.

"The panel knows very well the decision will bring no comfort to the family but have decided a striking off would be overly extreme."

"But given the seriousness of the offences a caution would not be serious enough.

"Although the accident had a tragic outcome, it appeared to be an isolated incident of dangerous driving."

"The panel observed Mr Sigauke is deeply affected by what he has done and he has told us how he will never forgive himself."

"In the light of all this we have decided to suspend him from the register for a year."

The panel will meet again in 12 months to review the decision.

Sigauke attended the hearing and admitted his fitness to practice was impaired.

Twins set to open festival with choir

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Young singers in a school choir are to join identical sisters, the Cann twins, who are returning to their home town to open this year's Haverhill Festival next month.

Antoinette and Claire Cann have been playing the piano together since their early teens and have had a 27-year professional career together, giving concerts around the world and winning many awards.

The sisters spent several years in Haverhill, where their parents still live, before moving to their present base in Cambridge.

They were thrilled to be asked to perform to open this year's festival and decided to continue their recent experiences of working with children by inviting the 60-strong Barnardiston Hall Preparatory School Choir to join them on stage at Haverhill Arts Centre on Sunday, June 14.

The concert starts at 7.30pm and is called An Evening of Summer Music, with the twins performing in evening dress, with candelabra on their pianos.

The twins have arranged some compositions especially for the choir to sing, including two arias from Die Fledermaus by Johann Strauss, and some light-hearted pieces. The choir will be led by head teacher, Colonel Ken Boulter

The pair have just returned from New York and New Orleans and they are very much looking forward to performing with the youngsters, who are building up quite a reputation for themselves.

Antoinette said: "A few years ago, we stepped in when someone was ill at the Perse School for Girls and did The Mikado with 7 to 11-year-olds.

"We really enjoyed it and wanted to do some more concerts with children. We decided to write some music for the Barnardiston Choir, because they are so good, really professional and enthusiastic.

"We have been really impressed with Nick Keeble, the range of events he puts on at the arts centre is amazing. Our parents were very strongly supportive of us when we were starting out, so we would like to help other youngsters develop. It will also be a world premiere of me playing the violin and Claire playing the trumpet."

The Cann Twins studied at the Royal College of Music in London for coaching and graduated with first class honours in solo and duo-piano performance, the only pianists to have done so.

As a duo, they won Countess of Munster Awards, a PLG South Bank recital and Summer Scholarships to Banff, Canada, to study. As postgraduates, they were awarded the RCM's most prestigious prize, The President's Rosebowl, and were invited by the late Queen Mother to perform for the Queen at Windsor.

Tickets for the Haverhill concert are £6, available from the Arts Centre Box Office on (01440) 714140. For more on the Cann Twins, visit www.canntwins.com.

Four beds axed at hospice as credit crunch bites

A HOSPICE has had to reduce the number of beds in its in-patient unit from 12 to eight as the credit crunch continues to hit donations to charities.

St Nicholas Hospice Care will soon reduce occupancy in its Sylvan Ward at its Bury St Edmunds hospice.

A statement from the Hospice said patient care will remain its priority and the ward will continue to accept referrals, admitting those with critical needs, while other patients will be supported by the specialist community team in their own homes.

The short term arrangement is due to some clinical staff handing in their notice, while St Nicholas currently has a freeze on recruitment as part of strategic cost saving measures designed to counter an overall decline in income as a result of the global recession.

Jackie Saunders, Clinical Services Director, said: "It is only natural that staff occasionally move on but we were taken aback by losing several team members at once.

"The remaining staff are not able to cover a rota for a ward at full capacity. I made the decision to temporarily reduce occupancy, so remaining staff are able to offer the quality of care and time to each patient that we are renowned for."

Barbara Gale, chief executive, said: "Patients are at the heart of everything we do, but practically, it was not possible to maintain a full ward at this time.

"Whilst the organisation tries to strategically work its way through the impact of the recession, we cannot sanction recruitment into new vacancies. We hope to be able to lift the freeze as soon as regular income increases.

"This is only a temporary measure and one that will not affect the quality of patient care delivered."

Shelter's search for cat's past

AN ANIMAL sanctuary is hoping for a purrfect reunion for an "unusual" cat that it suspects is lost not homeless.

The black and white male cat, with unusual, distinctive facial markings which appear grey, was taken to the Jaybeth Animal Sanctuary at Barnardiston, near Haverhill about eight weeks ago. The neutered male, who is about three years old, wandered into a lady's house just outside Steeple Bumpstead.

A Jaybeth spokeswoman said the cat had obviously been well looked after, although it was very reluctant to go near roads.

She said: "I have never seen a cat with markings on its face like that before. I am sure that it is someone, somewhere's much loved pet. It may well have just wandered too far from home and not been able to find its way back.

"We get just as many calls from people who have lost pets as those who have found them and ideally we would like to find its original home. If no-one comes forward within four weeks then we will have to look for a new home for him."

Anyone who recognises the cat or wants to give a home to another animal should call 07505 499184.

No music ban for restaurant

A RESTAURANT will be allowed to continue playing amplified music in its outside seating area despite objections from councillors.

Frankie and Benny's restaurant at Ehringshausen Way, Haverhill, had applied to St Edmundsbury Borough Council to retain its two heated and illuminated parasols despite it breaking a planning condition that stated that it should not use loud speakers to play music within the confines of the outside seating area.

Members of the borough council's development control committee approved the application despite objections from Cllr Gordon Cox and Haverhill Town Council.

Cllr Cox objected because he felt the playing of amplified music would be intrusive to nearby residents, and argued that if it was to be allowed it should not continue after 6pm and be entirely banned on Sundays or bank holidays.

Haverhill Town Council objected amid concerns music would cause a public nuisance and encourage non patrons to gather in the area.

It had also asked that the outside area should not be used after 11pm.

The council's environmental health services department raised no objections on condition that amplifiers should be switched off after 9pm. The borough council agreed to impose the curfew.

A committee report said the nearest dwelling was 55 metres from the site on the opposite side of Ehringshausen Way and no complaints had been received from residents or traders since the speakers had been in use. It also stated that the use within the seating area was considered suitable in the cinema and restaurant complex.

MP's horror at cannabis casualties

AN MP has expressed "horror" at the numbers of children being treated for problems linked with cannabis.

Figures obtained by West Suffolk MP Richard Spring, in a Parliamentary question, show that in Suffolk, 52 children needed medical treatment for problems linked solely with cannabis use in 2007/08. A further 21 were treated for damage to health partly associated with cannabis.

Nationally 6,075 needed treatment for damage caused by the drug.

Mr Spring said: "I am truly horrified by the number of children under 16 who have been treated for cannabis use. The Government's lax attitude on cannabis use has given the impression that the drug is a lot safer than it actually is and sends out a dangerous message to our children. Of course, I welcomed the Government's decision last year to belatedly reclassify cannabis as a Class B drug. But for many it will be too late.

"Thousands of young people will have taken cannabis and in due course may end up on hard drugs or in hospital.

"Cannabis usage is a critical health issue which is not remotely being highlighted sufficiently, with appalling consequences."

Help us protect our Roman road

Sir, The Friends of the Roman Road and Fleam Dyke are most grateful to you for highlighting the continuing damage done to the Linton-Horseheath section of the Roman road by off-road car drivers and motorbikers (Drivers turn Roman road into muddy racing track – Weekly News, May 14).

Such people claim the right to use their vehicles on quiet green ways all over the country, and I can understand that they get a great deal of pleasure from it, but the damage they do deprives many, many more people of their right to walk enjoyably with family and friends on these ancient tracks.

The Cambridgeshire County Council Countryside Access Team would welcome more evidence of public support for a Traffic Restriction Order. Please write a brief letter to Karen Whymark, Countryside Access Team, Cambridgeshire County Council, Castle Court, Castle Hill, Cambridge CB3 0AP.

For a copy of our petition, please email me at frfdjin@freebie.net or send a stamped addressed A4 envelope to me at the address below. Copies of our leaflets about the Roman Road and the Fleam Dyke are available free at the tourist office, or from me if you would kindly send a stamped addressed A4 envelope.

Stricter code to reduce damage

Sir, I am writing as a member of a Land Rover club regarding the protection of the Roman Road between Wandlebury and Horseheath.

Your article prompted a reply (Letters – May 14) which appears to ask for a complete ban on the use of this green lane by motor vehicles.

It is regrettable that certain byways suffer from overuse by motor vehicles, and as a result in wet weather the surface becomes rutted. This dilemma is recognised by members of responsible off-road clubs who adhere to a strict code of conduct to minimise damage. This voluntarily restricts the number of vehicles and frequency that byways are used.

In addition, vehicles are restricted to no more than 12mph when driving on green lanes.

This problem is not limited to this

Last week's Memories photograph, from our archives, showed youngsters at the Haverhill Toy Library. It was taken in February, 1989.

Jenny Martin, of Haverhill, wrote in with her recollections of the photograph.

She said: "Haverhill Toy Library was held at the old Corn Exchange, the St Felix Club building in Withersfield road.

"In the front of the photo are two children on a rocker – the little blonde girl waving is my daughter, Katrina Martin, who was around two and a half at the time so the year must be

1988. She is nearly 24 now and works in the Haverhill

WH Smiths as supervisor. The boy rocking with her is Ashley List, who must be 26 this year.

"Children could borrow the toys to take home and also have time playing together while mums could socialise and have a cuppa. "The toy library was all run by a committee of mums on a voluntary basis so that children could borrow toys that they might not have at home and lots of the toys had an educational value.

"We all took turns to help get the toys out, making tea and held various fundraising events to buy new toys."

area, but is nationwide and has been exacerbated by the 2006 Act that removed 60 per cent of green lanes from use by motor vehicles.

This effectively concentrated traffic on to the remaining green lanes. Any closure of remaining green lanes would intensify the use of other byways.

I would welcome active management of the remaining green lanes so that these can remain open to all users, and this may include restrictions to vehicles at times of adverse weather conditions. This would enable these wonderful assets to be enjoyed by the whole spectrum of the community both now and in the future.

Go-ahead for extension, despite 'overdevelopment' fears

A FRONT porch, extension and other alterations to a village bungalow have been approved by planners despite objections from the parish council that the property was already overdeveloped.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council's development control committee approved the plans to build the porch, as well as a single story rear extension and convert roof space to create first floor accommodation at The Drey, Withersfield Road, Great Watting.

The plans also include two rear dormer windows.

Great Watting Parish Council objected to the application on grounds that the property has multiple extensions and was already overdeveloped.

The report to the committee said while the property had been extended in the past, the plan would be acceptable and would not result in overdevelopment of the site.

The committee agreed that the development would have minimal impact on neighbours and would not have an adverse impact on the village Conservation Area.

Patient is furious over slow pay-out

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A WOMAN who was rushed to hospital unconscious and woke to find her clothes and possessions had gone, says she had received no explanation and has criticised the fact that it took so long to compensate her for the loss.

Nicola Marsh, 40, of Burton End, Haverhill, was taken to the hospital by ambulance in March and when she came to the next morning, she found that her clothes were gone along with her mobile phone, although she still had her purse.

Mrs Marsh had previously raised concerns about patient confidentiality issues at the hospital when she received a detailed letter containing medical records of two other patients she had never met.

Mrs Marsh said: "Somewhere between arriving in an ambulance and waking up in hospital, all my belongings had gone, including my mobile phone with all my numbers and pictures of my children on it.

"I did not know where I was, I was in a hospital gown and asked where my clothes were, but no one knew.

"I have only just got compensation, it has taken all this time and what they have given me doesn't even cover the cost of the phone.

"The stuff has never been found and I don't think it is very good at all. I don't seem to be very lucky with Addenbrooke's, next time I will go to West Suffolk and see if they are any better."

An Addenbrooke's spokesman said: "We are sorry that items belonging to the patient were misplaced.

"Our Patient Advice and Liaison Service investigated the matter on her behalf and sent her full details on how to make a compensation claim.

"Three weeks after her claim was made, we sent the patient a cheque for the full amount to cover the cost of all her missing items."

Brisk sales for generous artist

AN ARTIST who mounted an exhibition to raise cash for the ward where he was treated for cancer saw brisk sales at a private viewing on Saturday.

Edel Pincock, who is in his 60s and has eight grandchildren, believes he owes his life to staff at Addenbrooke's Hospital oncology department, where he received treatment after being diagnosed with prostate cancer in 2003.

The grateful patient decided to put his talents to good use and staged an exhibition of his paintings and sculptures at the East Town Park Visitors Centre in Coupals Road, Haverhill, which has been open to the public daily and closes at 4pm on Friday.

Dr David Gilligan, Clinical Director of Addenbrooke's Oncology, opened the exhibition on Saturday and expressed his gratitude to Mr Pincock for his efforts to support its work. A steady stream of visitors attended and by the end of the first day, 10 pieces had sold.

Edel said: "It was a wonderful private view and it is proving quite successful already. I want to thank everyone who has sponsored and supported me, it has been quite overwhelming. I am fortunate to still be here to do this because of the excellent care support I received from the hospital."

Mr Pincock, who moved from Jamaica to London in the 1960s and arrived in Haverhill in 1966 intends to make a sizeable donation to the hospital from the proceeds of work sold at the exhibition.

He has played a major role in the promotion of art in the town over the years and helped form the Haverhill and District Art Association, which was the precursor of the Haverhill Festival.

Gardens open for visitors

THE gates will be open to 14 village gardens for public visitors at the beginning of next month.

A warm welcome will be extended to visitors as the Ridgewell Open Gardens event takes place on Saturday, June 6 and Sunday June 7, from 12 noon to 5pm, with proceeds in aid of St Laurence Church.

A wide range of gardens will be on view, most in easy walking distance from the village centre, including a plantsman's paradise, a fine collection of other-worldly cacti, friendly hens, a school garden and a cool, leafy secret garden.

There will be refreshments at cream teas on offer at the village hall from 1pm to 5pm, as well as plants for sale, a garden display and music in the church.

Entrance is by programme, valid for both days, at £3 per adult, with accompanied children free.

Pupils get under the skin of art

Art students have been getting some unusual inspiration for their work as two tattooists have been showing them some of their work.

The Year 8 pupils from Castle Hill Middle School in Haverhill have been getting a taste of life as a professional artist over the past few weeks.

Pupils were visited by Mark Wilson of Asylum Tattoos and Trevor Cadman of Skin and Canvas to give them inspiration for their final project Myths and Legends.

Both ink experts have children in Year 8 and were approached by Castle Hill's art teacher Becky Baldwin to see if they would deliver an art lesson. Pupils had lots of questions for Mark Wilson about the tools of his trade, where he got his ideas from and where he trained. They also had the chance to design their own tattoos and colour flash cards as part of their art project.

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Trevor Cadman delivered an inspirational painting lesson to staff and pupils, letting them contribute to the painting he was producing in acrylics. Pupils also saw Trevor's air-brushed car that carried the tiger's head logo for his new shop Skin and Canvas.

Expressing huge thanks to the firms involved, Mrs Baldwin said: "The pupils were buzzing with ideas. A whole class of boys stayed in at lunch to carry on their tattoo design."

"I know the pupils have been inspired by the artists they have seen and I look forward to seeing their final pieces for Myths and Legends, which will be a silk painting."

Any local artists who would be interested in leading other classes with pupils at the school can call Mrs Baldwin on (01440) 702716 or go online and email her at bbaldwin@castlemanor.tplus.net

Loud and clear: MP Richard Spring adds his voice in support of the hearing test campaign.

CP

Get dialling for a 'fulfilling and active life'

AN MP is calling on residents to get dialling and take advantage of a telephone hearing test being offered by a charity.

To mark Deaf Awareness Week earlier this month West Suffolk MP Richard Spring helped promote the Royal National Institute for the Deaf's (RNID's) specially developed five-minute hearing check.

The service, which helps identify potential hearing loss, is also being supported by The Co-operative, which has chosen RNID as its charity of the year for 2009. The check, which can be accessed by visiting www.mid.org.uk/hearingmatters or by calling 0844 800 3838, assesses ability to detect speech amid background noise – similar to being in a crowded room.

Mr Spring said: "Many people don't realise how important their hearing is in their everyday lives until they start to lose it.

"I'm lending my voice to RNID's Hearing Matters campaign, which is urging you to look after your hearing health and take immediate action to avoid experiencing unnecessary isolation from friends, family and colleagues."

RNID's chief executive, Jackie Ballard, said: "On average, people take 15 years to deal with their hearing loss and, in that time, quality of life can be greatly reduced.

"Our message to people in Suffolk is simple – if you're concerned about your hearing, take our check today so you don't miss out on leading a fulfilling and active life."

New flu cases have 'no links'

TWO Cambridgeshire swine flu cases are the first in the UK to have no links to existing cases of the virus.

NHS Cambridgeshire said yesterday that, in two of the county's three cases, no links have been found to existing cases and the individuals involved have not travelled to countries affected by swine flu.

It means those two cases are likely to be "sporadic" cases of transmission in the community – the first such confirmed cases in the UK.

A spokesman for the Health Protection Agency said: "They are the first sporadic cases confirmed by a PCT (primary care trust)."

The two newest cases, confirmed on Monday, are believed to be in the southern part of Cambridgeshire. One of those involves sporadic transmission, while the other is still under investigation.

Both patients showed "mild symptoms" and are recovering at home.

Another case, confirmed last week and thought to be in Huntingdonshire, also involves sporadic transmission.

Dr Liz Robin, director of public health at NHS Cambridgeshire, said: "The Health Protection Agency and NHS Cambridgeshire have investigated all three cases. In two, no links have been found to existing cases, nor have they travelled to countries affected by swine flu. This means they are likely to be 'sporadic' cases of transmission of the infection. In the third case, contacts are still being investigated."

"This comes as no surprise and some transmission in the community has been expected."

Dr Robin said this did not represent "widespread incidence in the community" or "sustained transmission", and that advice to the public and healthcare staff remains unchanged.

In a separate development, some Addenbrooke's Hospital staff have been given refresher training on how to wear specially-fitted masks, gowns and gloves for use in the event of a flu pandemic.

Information on pub sought

A LOCAL historian is hoping Weekly News readers may be able to help in his quest to find the location of a former village pub, burned down at the beginning of the last century.

Dave Osborne, from Halstead, is writing a booklet about pubs in the area of the Colne Valley and has found press cuttings from 1908 about the former Griffin pub at Wixoe, which was destroyed by fire.

Later cuttings show that brewer Adams of Halstead applied to magistrates to renew their licence and rebuild the pub, but this never happened.

Anyone who knows something about the pub can contact Mr Osborne on (01787) 475604.

Address clarified

FOLLOWING an article published in last week's Weekly News – Anger over troupe trainer's sentence – we have been asked to point out that Jacqueline Gehring does not live at Stanton Place, Haverhill, but at Chapel Road, Ridgewell.

On tour: European candidate Kate Curtis, MEP Richard Howitt and Genzyme Haverhill Operations' operations director, Manuel Loureda.

MEP pays visit to leading employer

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A EURO MP has been given a tour of the £22 million manufacturing plant of a world-leading biotech company which has become one of a Suffolk town's leading employers.

Just before the visit by MEP Richard Howitt to Genzyme's Haverhill Operations, an announcement had been made that European funding decisions had secured the future of more than 350 jobs there and paved the way for future expansion.

Mr Howitt, who was accompanied by Labour European candidate Kate Curtis, first visited the Genzyme plant in November 2007, when the site was at the development stage.

The visit included an appraisal of the site's performance and a tour of the new £22m manufacturing plant, which is now complete and went into production earlier this year.

The innovative facility has been developed for the large scale continuous manufacturing of Genzyme's next-generation phosphate binder for use for patients with chronic kidney disease, for which marketing approval in the EU is expected next month.

The new facility has also been designed to minimise the impact on the environment, by utilising the most up-to-date energy efficiency expertise.

Genzyme's expansion of the Haverhill site and its skilled workforce is one of a series of recent investments the company made in Europe, including a new polyclonal antibody production plant in France and a new biomanufacturing site to produce antibodies for treatment of blood cancers and protein therapies for rare genetic diseases.

Confidence sky rockets after catwalk success

RECYCLED clothes were given a whole new look in a catwalk fashion show at West Suffolk College.

Carla Notley, 17, and Sophie Lancaster, 19, both from Haverhill, were among the enthusiastic students who organised and took part in the show in aid of MENCAP and the National Autistic Society.

Earlier in the year, the City and Guilds employability students baked cakes and sold them in college to raise the cash needed to buy the second-hand clothes.

They then put them together in different combinations to turn other people's unwanted fashion faux pas into high street chic, adding accessories to give them a new lease of life.

Donations were collected during the show and students plan to amend the nicest items of clothing and sell them to raise further cash.

Key worker Susannah Close said: "I am so proud of my students. They organised everything themselves including the music, stage, PA systems, posters, collection buckets, outfits and running order. Our students would have never done anything like this before and their confidence has already sky rocketed."

New look: Carla Notley and Sophie Lancaster hit the catwalk in a recycled fashion show at West Suffolk College. CP

Tiny Toes Childcare

Tiny Toes' first steps

CHILDREN will get a taste of the country life at a new nursery opening this summer which has its own orchard and pets corner, as well as a garden where they will be encouraged to grow their own vegetables and flowers.

Work is already under way on the purpose-built nursery, at Homefield Road, behind the new veterinary surgery, with extensive gardens and views across countryside and farmland.

It will open in July and is run by Amanda Ewings, who has successfully run a group from her home in Sturmer for the past four years. Last November Amanda won the Suffolk "Childminder of the Year" award and has become the first accredited childminder in Haverhill under the National Childminding Association's Children Come First scheme.

"I wanted to know everything that I possibly could and be the best childminder I could possibly be," says Amanda. "So I have gone on every course I could and left no stone unturned."

"Haverhill is an up-and-coming town which has a lot to offer and needs a good quality childcare provision with fantastic outdoor gardens and space."

Tiny Toes will offer Montessori-based childcare for children aged from three months right up to 14 years, with a range of full or half-day sessions, catering for term time and school holidays. The nursery will be open from 7am to 7pm on Monday to Friday all year, excluding public and Bank Holidays.

For the youngest children (aged from three months to two years) there will be the Caterpillar Room, including under-floor heating, a ball pool, a separate sleep/rest area, a sensory room and a separate garden with a covered play area.

The Butterfly Room for two to three-year-olds offers a large outdoor adventure play area with a playhouse, a covered sand den, spiral slides, tubes and swing bridge, a story and reading room, child-size windows, herb and vegetable patches, a pet's corner and a separate dining hall.

The Busy Bees Room for three to five-year-olds will offer purposeful play including art, music, science and technology, early literacy and numerical activities as part of the daily routine. The Dragonfly's Den for five to 14-year-olds offers numerous indoor and outdoor activities including upkeep of the vegetable garden, nature walks, go-karts, lazer quest, sports, cooking, dance and drama.

There is no registration fee to pay until November 2009. For more information phone Tiny Toes (01440) 702151.

Suffolk

THIS election is likely to be the last for Suffolk County Council in its current form. A review by the Government's Boundary Committee is expected to result in the formation of new unitary councils incorporating the seven district and borough councils in Suffolk. The county council is backing proposals for a single council covering the whole of Suffolk. The future shape of local government is expected to be among the issues during the election, along with the county council's controversial education reorganisation.

The county currently has 42 Conservative councillors, 20 Labour, nine Liberal Democrats and two independents. In the Exning and Newmarket division, long-serving Conservative councillor Bill Sadler is facing opposition from two town councillors – Chris Turner, the current mayor, who is standing for Labour, and David Hudson, who is standing for UKIP. Forest Heath district councillor Ian Radford is standing for the Liberal Democrats.

Haverhill area candidates

CLARE: Ray Crowson (UKIP), Jane Midwood (Con), Neil Moffat (Lab), Martin Redbond (LD).

HAVERHILL CANGLE: Lisa Carr (Lab), Phillip French (Con), Mick Graham (LD), Patrick Hanlon (Lab), Tim Marks (Con), Ken Rolph (LD).

HAVERHILL EAST AND KEDINGTON: Anne Gower (Con), Terry McNally (LD), Daniel Summers (Lab).

South Cambs

LINTON: John Batchelor (LD), Roger Hickford (Con), Shannon Revel (Lab).

Council hopefuls lay out their bright ideas

BY CHRIS ELLIOTT

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

THE big parties squaring up for seats on Cambridgeshire County Council have fired their first salvos.

The Conservatives have urged voters to judge them on their record.

Group leader Jill Tuck said she was confident that "the significant progress that the council has made in recent years, and the Conservative vision for years to come, will appeal to voters."

She said: "Over the last four years we have seen year-on-year improvement in exam results and the performance of our schools. We are providing more care for older people and those with disabilities than ever before."

"Our commitment to the environment has been demonstrated by recycling rates that are among the best in the country and by our success in getting more people to use public transport. All of these services really matter to people."

The Liberal Democrats have challenged the Conservatives to a public debate focusing on the two parties' manifestos.

Lib Dem leader David Jenkins said: "The county council is the largest employer in the county, the largest landowner and has an annual budget in excess of £800 million."

"These elections deserve to be taken seriously and deserve a serious public debate. I'm willing to meet Jill Tuck, any time, anywhere and debate the issues at a public meeting or perhaps on a local radio station or in the press."

"Equally, my team are willing to hold similar public debates with their opposite numbers in the Tory county council cabinet, to debate in detail the issues facing us over the next four years – transport, the environment, social services, education, value for money, and regional development."

Labour leader Paul Sales said the past 12 years of Conservative administration had left people facing

"inflation-busting" increases in council tax.

The party's manifesto states: "Surely for this, we would expect to see some serious improvement in the quality of services that the council provides to the most vulnerable members of our community."

"Instead, areas like youth and mental health provision, which have long been underfunded, continue to be short changed."

"The administration has been heavily criticised for failings in the provision of adult services and the Tories now assure us that they 'have been able to ensure that services for the most vulnerable children and adults will be protected and enhanced'."

"The budget for 2009-10 in fact presents a package of cuts in adult services that add up to £14.5 million over two years."

The Greens believe there should be one unified council for Cambridgeshire and has promised to tackle issues such as transport and social care.

Spokeswoman Margaret Wright said: "From pavement repair to parking, major transport decisions to the siting of bus-stops, city residents may not be aware how much the county affects their environment."

"Add to this the provision of social care to the elderly and the vulnerable and the successful operation of the county's schools, then the county becomes a powerful force in all our lives."

"Green Party county councillors would use their powers to help create a sustainable society while addressing the needs of all."

The Tories' manifesto is being delivered door-to-door countywide, and the other parties' manifestos are available at:

■ Lib Dems: www.libdemfuture.com

■ Labour: www.cambridgelabour.org.uk

■ Green Party: www.cambridgegreens.org.uk

More than 250 candidates will contest council seats across Cambridgeshire on June 4.

Shire Hall is very firmly under the thumb of the Tories. They hold 42 of the 69 seats, and their main rivals, the Lib Dems, have 23 seats. Labour has four.

One of the most interesting seats is at Linton, where veteran Lib Dem John Batchelor and Conservative Roger Hickford will be involved in a three-way fight with 18-year-old Hills Road Sixth Form College student Shannon Revel.

The teenager will be hoping to improve on a recent challenge – auditioning for TV's X-Factor, when she failed to get past the first round.

She said: "Sometimes young people feel a bit left out of politics, but I hope my candidacy will show it is easy to get involved."

"All my friends have been really supportive and were making sure they'd signed up in time to vote."

Shannon is one of three teenagers standing for the Labour Party on June 4 after a law change lowered the age limit of potential candidates from 21 to 18.

County praised for top funding service

SUFFOLK has been rated as one of the top five authorities in the country when it comes to funding the voluntary and community sector.

The Directory of Social Change (DCS) rated the Suffolk Foundation – which handles applications for funding on behalf of Suffolk County Council and NHS Suffolk – under the banner of the Suffolk

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Single Gateway.

Graham Gatehouse, Director for Adult and Community Services at Suffolk County Council, said: "Both the county council and the NHS Suffolk recognise that voluntary organisations play a terrific part in improving the quality of life for Suffolk people and in tackling disadvantage.

"To help their sterling efforts, the Suffolk Single Gateway is aiming to make it easier for voluntary groups to get funding to support their work.

"For that reason we are really pleased that the DCS has rated Suffolk so highly. The easier we can make the application process for voluntary bodies, the sooner will funding get through to where it is needed most."

Colour change plan

BUILDING a canopy over the front door and changing the colour of exterior walls from white to dark pink at Vine Cottage, Silver Street, Kedington, are the subject of a listed building application to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Cart lodge request

A LISTED building application to build a single storey rear extension and a cart lodge/garden building at Chestnut Cottage, Mill Lane, Stradishall, has been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

New windows wanted

A LISTED building application for replacement of windows at the Guildhall, Thurlow Road, Withersfield, has been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Plucking good times with trio and colourful tales of the sea

THREE of the world's finest and most acclaimed acoustic guitar soloists will step onto the Haverhill Arts Centre stage tonight for Acoustic Archery.

Phenomenal YouTube sensation Andy McKee, Johnny Dickinson and Tony McManus will use a wide range of virtuoso techniques from plucking, bowing, finger-picking, strumming, tapping and drumming to perform a breathtaking repertoire drawn primarily from their own compositions. The gig starts at 8pm.

■ It's Comedy Night at the arts centre on Sunday with three top names from the circuit. The jokes will be flying from 8pm onwards when Doc Brown, Jimmy McGhie and Dan Quinn arrive in Haverhill.

■ Alex Payler will be the guest of the Haverhill Organ Club next Tuesday at 7.30pm. Alex has performed to capacity audiences the length and breadth of the UK, including such prestigious venues as Minster Abbey and the Royal Festival Hall.

■ Blunderbus Theatre makes a welcome return to the arts centre next Wednesday with The Rainbow Fish, suitable for ages 4 to 7. If you enjoyed Giraffes Can't Dance earlier in the year, don't miss this production.

The rainbow fish, with her shimmering scales, is the most beautiful fish in the ocean, but she is proud and vain, and none of the other fish want to be her friends. Not until she learns to give away some of her most prized possessions.

Under the sea: Blunderbus Theatre returns to the Haverhill Arts Centre with The Rainbow Fish.

Come and swim with The Rainbow Fish in her glittering underwater paradise, and prepare to be whisked away on a deep-sea adventure as Blunderbus brings this enchanting tale to life.

This funny, fishy tale is bursting with magic and fun, along with some glittering underwater puppetry. The show lasts for around an hour with performances at 11am and 2pm.

■ The Haverhill branch of the Ipswich Town FC Supporters' Club invites you to an intimate evening of fun, frolics and good music with Matt Munro Jnr and Friends on Friday, May 29, at 7.30pm.

■ For cinema fans, the arts centre has the second screening of The Young Victoria (PG) tomorrow at 7.45pm. Starring Emily Blunt, Rupert Friend and Jim Broadbent, and from acclaimed writer Julian Fellowes (Gosford Park) comes the eagerly anticipated story of Queen Victoria's early rise to power.

■ Half term cinema entertainment includes Hotel for Dogs (U), adapted from the children's book of the same name and following two mischievous orphans as they attempt to hide dozens of stray dogs in an abandoned hotel.

It is showing next Tuesday at 2.30pm and Thursday, May 28, at 10.30am.

■ Marley and Me (PG), starring Jennifer Aniston and Owen Wilson, is the tale of a couple embarking on the adventure of marriage, career, family with the world's worst dog and is showing on Thursday, May 28, at 2.30pm.

■ For those who missed it the first time round, Slumdog Millionaire (15) is back on on Thursday, May 28 at 7.45pm.

An 18-year-old orphan from the slums of Mumbai is just one question away from winning 20 million rupees on India's Who Wants To Be A Millionaire but when the show breaks for the night, police arrest him on suspicion of cheating – how could a "slumdog" know so much?

■ For more details about any of the shows at the arts centre, or to book tickets, phone (01440) 714140 or go to www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk

Aries Mar 21 - April 19

If you want to make a good impression, lighten up. Have a few conversation topics ready that do not involve work. Although your dedication is admirable, it's also a warning bell to anyone romantically inclined to you. Nobody wants to get involved with a workaholic.

Taurus April 20 - May 21

A new source of income has strings attached. You won't have the level of creative freedom you had in the past. This is really difficult for someone like you, but you have to admit you need the cash. Happily, you will be able to work on your own projects after hours.

Disturbing memories could stop you from being honest with a colleague. This is not a good week to accept a job or negotiate a contract. Wait until next month to commit or you could feel pressured into accepting terms that will make you miserable.

World's oldest adventure yarn

AN ANCIENT epic makes the arduous voyage from the shopfloor this week as the John Lewis Drama Group presents The Odyssey. This exhilarating adaptation of Homer's epic poem, by award-winning playwright Hattie Naylor, dramatises Odysseus' quest to return to his homeland after the fall of Troy. Along the way, he must endure the intervention of the gods, encounters with the great Cyclops, the seductive Circe and the irresistible Sirens, and a journey to the underworld. The world's oldest action adventure runs nightly at Cambridge's ADC Theatre until Saturday from 7.45pm. Tickets are priced £9-10 or £7-8 for concessions. To book call (01223) 300085.

Retrospective of top cover star

THE Cambridge designer whose enduring collaboration with Pink Floyd produced some of the most iconic images in rock, is the star of new exhibition in Ely. The Babylon Gallery's Mind Over Matter exhibition is a 40-year retrospective of the work of Storm Thorgerson who designed every cover that graced Pink Floyd's 200 million record sales. Among his most famous images are the prism on the Dark Side of the Moon and The Division Bell – which featured Ely Cathedral. All prints are for sale priced £100 to £800 and are signed by the artist; some are limited edition. The free show launches on Saturday, June 6, from 2-4pm and runs until July 5. The Waterside venue is open Tuesday to Sunday from noon until 4pm.

Big gun stars lead line up

MAMAS Gun head up a five-act bill at The Junction tonight. The soulful funk rockers are supported by local soul boys Gil Karpasand Shean Williams and singer-songwriter Jamie Woon, plus DJ and host Pete Moore. Advance tickets for the 8pm gig are £7. Contact (01223) 511511 or www.junction.co.uk

Players say hello to a musical newcomer

THE Over Players are saying Hello Helen to an actress who scooped the title role in their production of the classic show Hello Dolly, despite having never been on an am-dram stage before. And in a double honour Helen Scully clinched the part in what is the show's 45th anniversary year and also the players' 25th anniversary production. She said: "I've always loved musicals and go round singing and humming tunes from them – I must drive people mad sometimes. For me Dolly

Levi is a dream part." Show producer, Christine Turner, said: "Helen had never been in an am dram group but Hello Dolly was her favourite film and she watched it constantly. When she joined us she was nearly word perfect, so was a natural choice." Hello Dolly will be at Over Community Centre from Wednesday, June 3, to Saturday, June 6. Tickets are £8, or £5-6 for concessions, to book call (01954) 230056. For more details visit www.overplayers.org.uk

Bands do battle for champion's crown

SIX school bands will go head to head on Saturday, June 6, in a bid to be crowned St Nicholas Hospice Care's Battle of the Band champions.

The groups will perform at Abbey Gardens in Bury St Edmunds in front of a highly-esteemed judging panel, made up of: Cockney Rebel frontman Steve Harley; Dan Hawkins, ex-band member of The Darkness now with the Stone Gods; Mark Jefferson, a local music teacher; Nick Brine, manager of Leeder's Farm studio; Nick Duncan, owner of Sounds Plus; and Andy Gray, who ran Andy's Records in the town for many years.

The first prize is a day in a recording studio, plus vocal coaching. A CD of the band's session will also be produced.

Steve Harley said: "I am thrilled to be able to give my support to this event, as it offers a chance for local, young musicians to show us what they can do. And who knows, maybe there's a really great, undiscovered band out there! And of course the event shines the spotlight on the fine work undertaken by St Nicholas Hospice Care. "I am proud to be associated with both the musical event and such a worthy charity." Participating schools are West Suffolk College, St Benedict's Upper School, County Upper School, King Edwards Upper School, Thurston Community College and Culford School. Tickets are priced at £6, in advance, and available from the fundraising and retail centre on Boldere Road and the main hospice reception in Hardwick Lane. Each of the participating schools, Sunrise and Sounds Plus also have tickets. They can also be bought at the gate from the Mustow Street entrance at £7.50. The event runs from 2-5pm and gates will open at 1pm. Michelle Grey, senior fundraising manager for the hospice, said: "Steve Harley has given up his place in a grandstand box at the Epsom Derby to support our Battle of the Bands. "This is a considerable concession by the Cockney Rebel star, as he's a well-known and successful racehorse owner himself, with thoroughbreds in training at Newmarket. "This will be a fabulous and exciting afternoon for all the young people in the area, as well as for the slightly more mature local music buffs. Come and join Steve Harley and Dan Hawkins for an afternoon of great music." This year marks St Nicholas Hospice Care's 25th anniversary. Over 50,000 local people have been supported by the hospice over its history. There will be a number of other events during the year to mark the special anniversary year. Downsizers find small is beautiful Smaller gardens are the talk of Chelsea Flower Show this year after several big sponsors pulled out because of the credit crunch.

So it's timely that Chelsea veteran and award-winning designer Andrew McIndoe has looking at the easiest ways to downsize.

"Leaving a garden that you have created and enjoyed to downsize to a smaller plot is difficult, and it would be all too easy to be negative about change and to hang on to the past," says Mr McIndoe, designer of the Hillier exhibit, which holds the unprecedented record of 63 consecutive gold medals at Chelsea.

After writing a book, Losing The Plot, for those who want or need to downsize their ambitions, he has these top 10 tips:

1. See it as an opportunity to start afresh with a blank canvas. Do not try to replicate your previous garden on a smaller scale – it rarely works.

2. Do not attempt to dig up lots of plants and take them with you if you move.

There are bound to be one or two old friends you will want to keep, but limit it to those that will move well.

by Hannah Stephenson

3. Make radical changes at the outset. Tired old paving does not improve with age, it gets worse. If you need to put up or replace fences and buildings, do it before you start planting.

4. Plan or redesign your garden from where you will see it most – usually from key windows. This will influence where you put features and utilities, and will ensure that you can enjoy your garden throughout the year.

5. Choose plants that work hard to earn their keep, and which have more than one season of interest and need little attention.

6. Keep an open mind to radically different ways of gardening. You do not have to have a lawn. You do not have to grow roses. Raised beds might make life easier. Grow vegetables in containers, even if you have never tried before.

7. Make use of pots and containers and consider more permanent planting. Seasonal bedding plants need replacing twice during the year to maintain all-year-round interest. Limit bulbs and bedding plants to a few pots and group them with other permanently planted ones.

8. Consider somewhere to sit and enjoy the garden. You need a comfortable seat or set of furniture somewhere accessible and ready to use in nice weather. Treat yourself. It will make morning coffee, afternoon tea or evening drinks in the garden part of your daily routine.

9. Your preference for certain plants changes over the years. If there is something you have always wanted to grow, now is your chance. A new horticultural challenge will rekindle your passion for plants.

10. Take a firm line with gifts of plants from friends and family. If you do not like it, want it, or it does nothing for your garden, do not plant it.

■ Losing The Plot, by Andrew McIndoe, is published by AA, priced £17.99. It is available from www.hillier.co.uk and AA Publishing at www.theaa.com/bookshop and from good bookshops. BEST OF THE BUNCH Lilac (Syringa)

Recent reports about a rare lilac being stolen from a collection which grows in Withdean Park in Brighton, by professionals armed with secateurs and saws, prompted me to ponder on these glorious shrubs with their clusters of fragrant flowers in shades of mauve, pink and white.

The most common is S. vulgaris, which you'll find at most garden centres. Good varieties include Firmament, which produces panicles of fragrant, single, lilac-blue flowers in May, and Andenken An Ludwig Spath, with clusters of wine-red flowers.

If you have a small garden, a better choice might be a slow-growing lilac such as S. meyeri Palibin, which forms a compact bush covered from late spring to early summer with clusters of fragrant pale lavender-pink flowers.

Lilac is an easy plant which will grow in any reasonable soil, although it prefers chalk, in a sunny spot. Be warned that some types will grow to four metres (12 feet) and you will need to feed or mulch them annually and remove both suckers and dead flowers. Cut out thin and unproductive branches immediately after flowering.

Why sell the traditional way?

Get Estate Agents to value it and put it on the market.

Show people around the property (mostly "nosy parkers" & sightseers).

If no offers received after 2 or 3 months, reduce price.

Show more people around.

Eventually accept an offer at between 5 & 10% off the advertised price.

Hope the sale doesn't fall through (over 30% of sales don't reach completion).

Once price agreed, wait a further 3 months for sale to complete.

Work out how many £000s it has cost you in reducing the price, making mortgage payments, paying Estate Agents fees and legal fees since you started the process (on average, 7 months ago...)

Sell your property the CXG way...

The simple alternative

- Pay no Estate Agent's fees
- Pay no Legal fees
- No further mortgage payments
- Have cash within days (Instead of months)

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- ☐ Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- ☐ Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- ☐ Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Send off change of address cards.
- ☐ Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- ☐ Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- ☐ Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- ☐ Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- ☐ Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- ☐ Cover carpets which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- ☐ Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

2 ON MOVING DAY:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- ☐ Take down curtains.
- ☐ Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.
- ☐ Dismantle any light fittings etc., not included in the sale.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler/central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Leave key as arranged with new owners.
- ☐ On arrival at your new home, unpack slowly and methodically so that you can check for loss or damage.

The all-new Vauxhall Astra: Debuts at Frankfurt Motor Show in September.

Premium look suits the latest Vauxhall Astra

THE FIRST official images of Vauxhall's new Astra model have been released.

Powered by a range of downsized, fuel-efficient engines including a 137bhp turbocharged 1.4-litre petrol unit, the new model has been designed by the same team responsible for the award-winning Vauxhall Insignia.

The model's official debut will be at the Frankfurt Motor Show in September, however the new exterior images give an unhindered view of the sixth generation of Vauxhall Astra, historically one of the most popular British cars.

"We're continuing with the same premium design cues as the Insignia, inside and out of the car," said Mark Adams, vice-president of GM Europe Design. "However, the main design themes, like the wing-shaped light signatures and the blade, needed an individual execution to avoid 'cloning' the model ranges. This is why, for instance, you see twin wings in the rear lights and a reversed blade on its flanks."

The new model is set to be built at General Motors' Ellesmere Port factory, Merseyside, but some doubt still lingers over the future of the plant after Italian group Fiat was reported to be interested in buying the European branch of General Motors, including Vauxhall.

Ellesmere Port was chosen as one of the plants to build the new model thanks to high efficiency rates from its 2,000 workers.

"The only part of the Astra which isn't new is its name," said Andy Gilson, Vauxhall's marketing director. "And that name currently accounts for around 30 per cent of all Vauxhall's car sales, with the five-door hatch taking 60 per cent of those sales alone – so it's important to lead with this body style. Not only is the Astra a crucial new model for Vauxhall, but we're confident that its blend of dynamic design, new-to-class technology and immense driver appeal will attract an even broader spectrum of buyers in this sector."

Premium design: For Merseyside-built Vauxhall Astra.

Alfa bucks sales trend with style

AGAINST a backdrop of falling new car sales in Britain, and a UK market 28.5 per cent down on 2008 year-to-date, Alfa Romeo is bucking the trend.

According to March and April's new registration statistics from the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders (SMMT), the Italian car maker has recorded a positive percentage change in its new car sales, with a massive 76.8 per cent increase in April.

The sporting marque is also one of only two manufacturers to be credited with increased year-to-date sales figures compared to 2008.

Alfa Romeo's 2009 line-up has been boosted by the introduction of the, compact MiTo which has extended the manufacturer's appeal into a new market segment.

■ News that the Government is incentivising drivers of old cars (10 years and older) to trade up to a brand new model with a £1,000 windfall matched by the manufacturer, means eligible motorists can own a stunning

The Alfa Romeo MiTo: Using the scrappage deal, you can now own an Alfa for less than £9,000.

All-new Mazda3 is on sale

The all-new Mazda3: In showrooms this week.

ONE of the most popular Mazda models in Britain gets a major boost to its appeal on Monday when the all-new Mazda3 range goes on sale, priced from £13,500.

The new 20-strong model line-up (16 hatchback and four saloon cars), has a more striking design, higher levels of interior comfort and a more premium cabin environment. Both retail and fleet customers will benefit from the dramatic CO2 reductions that Mazda's engineers have achieved to bring models below the 120g/km and 160g/km tax thresholds.

"With its fresh body style, more powerful and emotional design, the all-new Mazda3 brings the sophistication, style, technology and refinement of the larger Mazda6 to the small family car sector," comments Mark Cameron, sales and marketing director for Mazda UK. "The new model is improved visually, technically and in terms of comfort. We have given it an even more generous specification at each equipment level, so Mazda3 continues to deliver great value for money."

All-new Mazda3 is offered with a choice of four petrol and three diesel powertrains, all fine-tuned to use less fuel. Customers who prefer a petrol engine can choose from 1.6-litre (103bhp), 2.0-litre (147bhp) with a new 5-speed automatic transmission) or 2.0-litre (148bhp) powertrains for the 11 regular Mazda3 models – or the 2.3-litre 256bhp turbo-charged engine in the Mazda3 MPS, due to be launched later in the year. The choice of diesel engines is expanded to encompass 1.6-litre (106bhp), and the new 2.2-litre (147bhp) and 2.2-litre (181bhp) engines.

The all-new shape of the new Mazda3 has lowered aerodynamic drag to just Cd 0.28 (saloon) and 0.30 (hatchback) – 'best-in-class' figures. The improved aerodynamics and returned powertrains, plus the reduced weight (down by 15 kilos on some models), result in significant reductions in CO2 and fuel consumption. On the official combined cycle, petrol models achieve up to 44.8mpg, while diesel models record up to 62.8mpg.

Breaking up ain't hard to do

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF)

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility.

HIGHWAYS AGENCY
ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 - SECTION 14(1)(a)
THE A14 TRUNK ROAD (M1 JUNCTION 19, LEICESTERSHIRE TO EXNING INTERCHANGE, NEWMARKET, SUFFOLK) (TEMPORARY RESTRICTION AND PROHIBITION OF TRAFFIC) ORDER 2009

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport has made an Order on the A14 Trunk Road between Junction 19 of the M1 in Leicestershire and Newmarket in Suffolk, to allow for the installation of variable message signs, foundations and associated ducts, cabling and control cabinets to be carried out in safety.

It is expected that the works will take overnight only (8pm-6am) covering 29 locations between Monday 1 June 2009 and Thursday 1 October 2010. The Order will come into force on 25 May 2009 and have a maximum duration of eighteen months.

The effect of the Order will be to -

- impose a 50 miles an hour speed limit, in conjunction with lane closures, on the eastbound and westbound carriageways of the A14 from its junction with the western roundabout at the M1/M6/A14 Catthorpe Interchange (Junction 19), Leicestershire, including the circulatory carriageway of that roundabout, to the centre point of the under bridge at the A14/A142 Exning Interchange (Junction 37), Newmarket, Suffolk;
- prohibit vehicles with an overall width exceeding 4.1 metres from the length of trunk road described at (a) above (directing them to wait in a designated layby to be escorted through the works); and
- prohibit vehicles from entering or proceeding -
 - in the A14 eastbound exit slip road leading to Rothwell Lodge, Rothwell Road (Junction 6), diverting vehicles to the Kettering North Roundabout (Junction 7) where they will join the westbound carriageway of the A14 back to exit at Junction 6;
 - in any layby adjacent to the eastbound or westbound carriageway, or
 - through a gap in the central reservation, of the length of trunk road described at (a) above.

The work will be carried out in 7 phases (4 - 6 weeks at each location) with the restrictions and prohibitions limited to a 4 kilometre length of trunk road at any one time.

Traffic signs will indicate the extent of the speed limit (which will not apply to emergency service vehicles), width restriction, layby and gap closures (which will not apply to works, emergency service or traffic officer vehicles).

DARTS

Rose bloom in thumping win

THE Haverhill Summer League got off to a stuttering start with only two games played and two new teams struggling for players.

The games that did start produced away wins for the main title hopefuls, Ex-Servicemen's A winning 6-2 at the Black Horse and the Rose Tavern thumping Ex-Servicemen's B 7-1.

Details: Black Horse v Ex-Servicemen's A - Singles: D Rogers 11 S Wells, M Sharman 11 G Flynn (100, 100, 100, 177, 120, 10 and 12 dart legs), B Ellis (100) bt R Phillips (100, 100), A Sharman bt S Wright (140, 100).

Doubles: M Sharman and A Sharman 11 G Flynn (100, 100, 100, 140) and D Fish (100), D Rogers and B Ellis 11 S Dickson and P Huggill (100).

Triple: D Rogers, A Sharman and B Ellis 11 to S Wright, P Huggill and G Flynn (180, 125).

Fours: B Ellis, D Rogers, A Sharman (100) & W Sharman 11 to R Phillips, S Wells, L Varney and D Fish.

Captains Cup: S Dickson (Ex-Servicemen's A).

Highlight: G Flynn for 36.45 average in singles.

Ex-Servicemen's B v Rose Tavern - Singles: A Yates (120) 11 A Pordage (135, 100), R Skeggs-Terry bt C Dale (121), D Blackburn (107in, 100, 100, 100) 11 A Topper (100, 100, 140), R Dean 11 L Topper (140, 137, 100, 100).

Doubles: R Dean and B Marlow (100) 11 L Topper (135) and A Topper (140, 140), D Blackburn (135, 120, 100) and N King 11 R Herridge (116, 100) and A Pordage (117out, 140, 140).

Triple: R Skeggs-Terry, B Marlow and R Dean 11 C Dale (123), A Topper and R Herridge (100).

Fours: L Blackburn, A Eaton, D Blackburn and A Yates 11 A Pordage (100), R Scott (100), R Herridge and J Cawley, Captains Cup R Scott (Rose Tavern). Highlight: L Blackburn's 125.

■ If anyone is interested in playing darts please contact the league secretary Andy Pordage on 07814373772 for more information.

■ The Beer Leg rule has been amended. The match is optional and down to the captains with the home team having the final say.

Woodgate blast sinks Abington

JOHN Woodgate took 5 for 14 as Babraham cruised to victory over Abington to leave them well adrift of their rivals at the foot of the Adams Harrison Midweek League, Division One.

In a rain-affected week, Ashdon saw off Great Yeldham, despite Nick Wright's 66, while Abington II's good start to the Division 3B season continued against Babraham II with Colin Godsmark (27), Jonathan Webb (3-5) and Chris Malins (4-6) sparking a comfortable win.

Tom Daniels steered Balsham to victory over Weston Colville II with an undefeated 73 while Luke Stanley scored 38.

Division One: Abington 72 (Sharma 42, 17ov; 1pt) Babraham 73 for 3 (Woodgate 5 for 14, 12.2ov; 20pts).

Division Two: Ashdon 114 for 4 (20ov; 20pts) Gt Yeldham 113 for 6 (Wright 66, 20ov; 6pts).

Division 3B: Babraham II 41 (15ov, 2pts) Abington II 82 for 4 (Godsmark 27, Webb 3 for 5, Malins 4 for 6, 16ov; 20pts), Weston Colville II 131 for 6 (16ov; 6pts) Balsham 132 for 2 (Daniels 73 not out, Stanley 38, 14.5ov; 20pts).

NETBALL: LADIES STORM IN

Haverhill Ladies 25 Jubilee B 7

East Suffolk Summer League, Division Two IN a fast and furious start, Haverhill just shaded the first quarter 10-7 - but that was as good as it got for Jubilee.

Haverhill started to break down their opposition, with very strong defence work from Kelly Tharby, Jade Killingback and Fiona Micklewright preventing any further goals.

Gaining confidence with every goal scored, Haverhill picked up the pace and good court play from Amanda Stokes and Dannielle Ledwith, coupled with outstanding shooting from Heather Sangster and Natalie Franklin, took them well clear.

Haverhill Ladies B 6 Breckland A 18

East Suffolk Summer League, Division Three DEPLETED Haverhill kept a tight rein on Breckland for two quarters before their rivals finally pulled away. Superb defending from the new combination of Leanne Tilley, Jody Teather and Louise Cousins, plus telling contributions from Emily Cummings and Leanne Tilley, kept Haverhill in the game until Breckland stepped up a gear in the final quarter.

FOOTBALL

Champions: West Wrattling's under-12s with their silverware after just edging to the Cambridge and District Colts League, under-12D title on goal difference.

CP

It's tight but Wrattling's goalden run seals title

WEST Wrattling's under-12s emulated their senior teams, as well as the under-nines, by winning their divisional title.

However, they went right down to the wire to do it, crushing Needingworth 11-1 in their final Cambridge and District Colts League, under-12D game to land the title on goal difference from Haslingfield.

Wrattling's recent goal blitz - 57 goals in the last five games, played over a 13-day run-in - gave them a 16-goal advantage over their rivals.

More importantly, it took their total for the season to 178, and with only 15 conceded it gave them one of the best goal differences in the entire 310-team league.

Squad: Earle Lambert, Billy Bush, Oliver Stevenson, Leon

Junior football

Grampian Gunners A 2

Cherry Hinton Lions B 1

Cambs Mini League, under-10

DESPITE a lacklustre start, Gunners could still have had the game won by half time but for the heroics of the Lions' keeper, who saved well from Westley, Woodley, Graice, Robson and Thompson.

However, the keeper played a pivotal role in the breakthrough goal, a shot from Farrow rebounding off him into the net.

The lead did not last long, but with time running out Heanderson slotted in a long through ball.

Golf

Singles seal big cup win

HAVERHILL made a good start to their Curry Cup campaign against newcomers Stoke By Nayland at Coupals Road.

Played over 36 holes, the home side led by 3½-2½ at lunch following the foursomes in which the lower handicap players excelled with a 100 per cent record.

Haverhill then won the singles 8-4 to seal an 11½-6½ win.

■ The ladies had a busy week, which included a 4-0 defeat against Bury St Edmunds.

Gill Richardson was the leading lady in the Peggy McGhee Cup when her team – Robert Rudge and Bill Lancee – scored 107 stableford points to hold off Lynn and Andy Fish, and Trevor Broomfield by two points. Mary Sail, Malcolm Klinge and Bob Spittle were third on 102.

Ladies Invitation Day was also a stableford with a two-point victory going to Jackie Condon and guest Bev Allan (Bury St Edmunds). Runners-up were Val Tavener and Edith Varney while Marion Kendall and Ley Broom were third on 38 points.

The May Saturday Medal winner was Heather Eldred (73) from Jackie Condon (74) and Mary Sail (75).

■ The seniors won both their matches, winning 4½-3½ at Bury St Edmunds and trouncing Gosfield 7-1 at Coupals Road.

■ Trevor Broomfield and Charlie Hudson were the leading duo in The Linton Enterprise Classic on Sunday, beating a large field by two stableford points.

Leading scores: Broomfield/Hudson 43, Warwick/Vince, Bishop/Harkness 41, Whelan/Cornelius, Savill/Cox, Scott/Tavener, Barrett/Ward, Hilton/Harris, Thomas/Spittle 40.

■ Midweek medal:

Red and White all over: Haverhill's players celebrate after sharing the trophy at the Newmarket tournament. CP

Football

HAVERHILL Rovers were on to a winner in the prestigious Newmarket Town six-a-side tournament.

Both Whites and Reds teams reached the final, and agreed to share the trophy rather than go through a penalty shoot-out after the scores were locked at 1-1 after extra time.

The teams were kept apart in the group stages, where the 12 teams were split into two groups with the top two contesting the semi-finals.

Both teams were runners-up in their groups, the Whites after three wins and two draws, scoring seven and conceding just two, while the Reds won two and had three goalless draws, scoring three without conceding a goal.

The Whites beat Newmarket Town in their semi with goals from Tom Middle and Ben Eames, Reds and Whites are just too hot while the Reds made it a dream final by beating Grampian Gunners, Jack Trowbridge firing the winner.

Eames opened the scoring for the Whites in the final – the first goal Ben Coleman had conceded in the tournament – but Trowbridge tied matters with a well executed equaliser.

Whites' scorers: Ollie Kiddy 5, Ben Eames 3, Sam Street, Tom Middle. Reds' scorers: Jack Trowbridge 5.

Rovers Whites: Callum Dray, Sam Street, Sean Elsom, Ben Eames, Tom Middle, Ollie Kiddy.

Rovers Reds: Ben Coleman, Rhys Shulver, Paul Jenkinson, Stephen Boyles, Jack Trowbridge, Jay Osuchukwu, Leon Bailey.

'NEGATIVE' BATSMEN RAPPED AFTER A 10-WICKET HAMMERING ...

Haverhill nightmare

HAVERHILL suffered a 10-wicket mauling at Easton in Division Two of the Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship.

They lost the toss and lurched to 148 for 8 off 45 overs, an inadequate score that would have been a lot worse but for a rush of 30 runs off the last four overs.

The shortcomings of the innings – the batsmen were criticised for not adopting a positive approach – was shown up by the home side, who took risks and romped to a comprehensive win.

Two dropped catches did not affect the outcome in a disappointing warm-up for the visit of unbeaten league leaders Woolpit on Saturday.

■ Joe Robins' 76 and healthy contributions from Harry Randall (46) and Arvid Gunderson (41) ensured Weston Colville triumphed by six wickets at Kimbolton & Catworth in Division Two of the Tucker Gardner Cambs and Hunts Premier League.

The visitors eased to 197 for 4, having earlier limited their opponents to 196 for 7. Fred Scruby took 3 for 36.

■ Dan Goldsmith made Camden II pay for dropping him three times as he made a swashbuckling unbeaten 155 in Horseheath's 56-run victory in Division One of the CCA Senior League.

The batsman, who was put down for the first time when he had not scored, shared a 103-run opening stand with Mick Ketteridge (53) and then put on 95 with skipper Gary Ellis.

His innings contained 13 fours and 11 sixes as Horseheath posted 285 for 5.

Camden II had some good performers with the bat – Dip Basu (58) and Nick Wells (52) – but, with Ellis taking 3 for 71 and Robbie Ketteridge and David Brown collecting two wickets apiece, they were stranded on 229 for 9.

Ellis said: "Dan was quite brutal – he's done it before and he's that sort of batsman. He got 120 in the second 22 overs and punished Camden for dropping him on nought."
